

CAMP CLINICIAN/STAFF

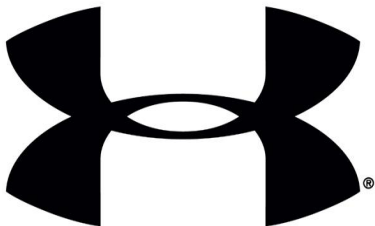

Gardner-Webb Head Volleyball Coach Leo Sayles, who is in his seventh year at GWU, has over 25 years of experience as a coach at the college, high school and club levels. In seven years at Bryan College, the 2006 AAC Coach of the Year, developed his team into a perennial power in the Appalachian Athletic Conference.

Coach Sayles brings a biblical philosophy of coaching that has proven successful in several sports at the college and high school level. He has coached sports clinics and camps in the USA and in the Dominican Republic since 1996.

Sayles will serve as the primary camp clinician, and will be assisted by GWU first assistant Carrie Gurnell (2nd season). GWU second assistant Heather Feldman (2nd season) will lead as well.

Camp assistants will be GWU staff and players and/or other regional college coaches and players.

CAMP INFORMATION

This camp is designed for students entering grades 9-12. The camp offers instruction and training in the skills and techniques of passing, setting, serving, attacking, blocking, and floor defense. Emphasis is placed on developing court movement, ball control, as well as game competition. A variety of drills, games, and competition will be used to put these techniques into practice.

Campers will be divided onto courts by skill level, age and experience, which will provide the appropriate learning environment.
